DUBLIN.

By the Lords-Juſtices and Council of Ireland,
A PROCLAMATION.

Tho. Armagh, Con. Phipps, Canc.

WHereas by the Deceaſe of our late Sovereign Lady Queen ANNE of Bleſſed Memory, the Imperial Crowns of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, are Solely and Rightfully come to our Sovereign Lord GEORGE by the Grace of God, King of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. For preventing Dangers that may ariſe at this Juncture from Papiſts or other Perſons diſaffected to His Majeſty's Government, and for preſerving the publick Peace of this Kingdom; We the Lords-Juſtices and Council, do hereby ſtrictly Charge and Require all Papiſts licenſed to keep and wear Arms, forthwith to deliver up their reſpective Arms, and all Ammunition in their Poſſeſſion, to the next Juſtice of the Peace, or chief Magiſtrate where ſuch Perſon do reſide, who are hereby required to give a Receipt for the ſaid Arms and Ammunition, and to keep the ſame till further Order.

And We do hereby ſtrictly Command and Require all Juſtices of the Peace, and other Officers in this Kingdom, within their ſeveral Juriſdictions, to ſearch for, take and ſieze all Arms, Armour and Ammunition of what kind ſoever, which ſhall be found in the Poſſeſſion of all Papiſts not licenſed, and all reputed Papiſts and other Perſons ſuſpected to be diſaffected to His Majeſty's Government, or in the Poſſeſſion of any other Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for them, or any or either of them, and to return a true and particular Account thereof to the Clerk of the Council, or his Deputy, of ſuch Arms as they ſhall ſieze purſuant to this Proclamation, with the Names of the Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody or Power they ſhall find ſuch Arms, Armour and Ammunition. And any if Papiſt or Papiſts, or other ſuſpected Perſon or Perſons, ſhall preſume to carry or keep Arms, Armour or Ammunition, contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this Our Proclamation, We do hereby Will and Require all Juſtices of the Peace and other Magiſtrates, to proceed againſt all ſuch Offender and Offenders, and to put the Law in due and ſtrict Execution.

And We further Charge Command and Require all Juſtices of the Peace, and other chief Officers and Magiſtrates, within their ſeveral Juriſdictions, to ſeize and take all ſerviceable Horſes, Geldings and Mares that ſhall be found in the Poſſeſſion of any Papiſt, reputed Papiſt, or ſuſpected Perſon, or in the Poſſeſſion of any other Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for any Papiſt, reputed Papiſt, or ſuſpected Perſon, and the ſame to keep according to Law. And ſtrictly to Examine upon Oath all and every Perſon and Perſons whom they ſhall ſuſpect to conceal any Arms, Armour and Ammunition, Horſes, Mares or Geldings belonging to any Papiſt, reputed Papiſt, or ſuſpected Perſon, and to do all and every thing that is further required in and by the Laws of this Kingdom, for the Puniſhment of ſuch who ſhall conceal the ſame.

Given at the Council Chamber, in His Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin, the Seventh Day of Auguſt, 1714.

Will. Dublin, Kildare, Abercorn, W. Kildare, Shelburn, Cha. Feilding, P. Savage, Wm. Steuart, Sam. Dopping, C. O Neill.

GOD Save the KING.

Hague, Aug. 24. 'The Count de Tarouca, Miniſter of Portugal, has in a Conference with the States Deputies, notified 'to them the favourable Declaration which 'the Lords Juſtices of England have cauſed 'to be made to the Portugueſe Envoy at 'London, viz. "That Spain ſhould be "obliged to conclude Peace immediately "with the Crown of Portugal, or that in "caſe of Refuſal his Portugueſe Majeſty "may depend upon being aſſiſted by the "Crown of Great-Britain, conformably to "the Treaty of defenſive Alliance between "thoſe two Crowns. And 'tis not doubted, 'that their High Mightyneſſes will give the 'like Aſſurances to the ſaid Miniſter, and 'that they will be ready to concur in all 'Meaſures which his Britannick Majeſty 'may judge proper to be taken for obliging 'Spain to agree with Portugal on fair Conditions of Peace, to the juſt Satisfaction 'of the latter.

Dunkirk, Aug. 13. "Yeſterday the French "laid ſeveral Stones in the Sluyce of the "new Baſon; A Stone with the Coat of "Arms

" Arms cut in it of —— Luxembourg's " Son (who was lately here) was the first " that was laid; a Stone with the Intendant's " Arms was the next; and then all the No- " bleſſe and the Magiſtrates of this Diſtrict, " had Stones with their Arms placed accord- " ing to their Quality: The Workmen on " this Occaſion had 150 Piſtoles at leaſt " given them. This Work is judged to be " one of the greateſt that the King of France " ever undertook; and undoubtedly if he " lives he will ſee it perfected; for he is " not at much Charge on it himſelf, and " will not let Soldiers be wanting to labour " at it. Droves of Iriſh come over here, " and they come to and from all Parts of " this Country, but I do not hear of any " Troops, or that any Shipping extraordi- " nary are fitting out in any Sea-Ports. " They ſtill continue filling the Harbour " here towards the Baſon.
